THE OLDEST MAN.

Additional Particulars of His Death. A Successor Suggested. (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.) M'DONOUGH (Ga.) Jan. 27.—Hiram Lester, supposed to be the oldest man on earth, is dead in the Henry county poorhouse, at the age of 128. He was born in Raleigh, N. C., eight years before the birth of the republic. There is no question as to his great age, as he leaves a son 92 years old, who is an inmate of the same institution, and a daughter, who lives in Heard county and is 85 years old. "Uncle Hiram," as he was familiarly known, came from a long-lived ancestry. His father lived to be 100 and his grandfather to be 115. The old man claimed to have enjoyed the hospitality of George Washington for three days, and spoke fluently on the subject of the official acts of Jefferson, Madison and Jay. He claimed to have fought in the war of 1812, but he never drew a pension. He lost three sons in the civil war. In 1831 he was obliged to take refuge in the poorhouse. In 1891 he was married to Miss Mary Moseley, aged 81, housekeeper of the poorhouse.

WRECKED PIT.

Explosion in a Welsh Colliery.

Few of the Fifty Odd Miners Escape Alive. Fire Seizes on the Ruins of the Shaft. Rescuers Conduct Operations Under Conditions of Extreme Peril—The Utmost Excitement Prevails in Tylers-town.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.) CARDIFF, Jan. 27.—(By Atlantic Cable.) The residents of the town and vicinity of Tylers-town, near here, were terrified today by reverberations which shook the whole town. It was ascertained in a short time that the concussion was caused by an explosion in a neighboring colliery with disastrous consequences to life and property. The latest report places the number of dead at fifty-four, though it is feared the further exploration of the wrecked mine will develop the bodies of more. Reports of the number of killed have been conflicting, and there is doubt as to the exact number. The first reports gave the number in the shaft at fifty-four, but some of the men escaped to the surface bringing the body of one comrade with them.

The mining population of the locality knew all too quickly what the muffled, thunderous rumble of the explosion meant, and rushed to the mouth of the pit only to have their worst fears confirmed. The shaft was found to be entirely shattered, and it was evident there was little hope that any of the men in the pit would have survived the explosion.

The pit was found to have caught fire, and the hindrance that this caused to the work of rescue added to the excitement and tension of feeling. It was only through bravado the utmost peril that the living were able to prosecute their quest for the dead. The number of dead removed grew from twelve to fifteen, and then twenty, and the list of those known to have been in the shaft kept constantly growing, and with it the number of bereaved families waiting at the surface.

The work of exploration is going on steadily, but under great difficulty. The numerous cave-ins obstructing the advance and making it impossible to reach remote portions of the mine, while the defective ventilation often drives back those who are advancing on their end, and the fact that some of the men have been found alive, and it is not now expected that any will be.

MISPLACED CONFIDENCE.

How the Schille Collection of Antiquities Became Stolen. (BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—(Special Dispatch.) The story of the robbery of a collection of antiquities, known as the Schille collection, which was placed in the hands of Edward Schmalz, came to this country from Germany five years ago and was expected by his uncle, Col. Richard Louis von Schille, an antiquarian of reputation in Europe, to make his living. Edward and his nephew, who was a saloon-keeper and antiquarian on a small scale, were arrested today and charged with the burglary.

Schmalz, who is nothing else than a brilliant vagabond, learned a few months ago that his uncle had sent his collection of antiquities to his nephew, and he began to hunt for it. He found its custodian was Prof. Jahn, who was arranging for a sale of curios to one museum in this country which would be willing to buy it intact and retain the name of its collector. Prof. Jahn knew of Schmalz, he employed him. Jahn sailed for Paris shortly after Schmalz was employed.

Schmalz knows curios and their value. So does LeFevre, the saloon-keeper. So when Schmalz was installed in the thirtieth-street treasure-house LeFevre frequently called to see him and discuss the value of the curios, which were spread before them. Notes of warning to LeFevre from Schmalz, intercepted by the police, led to their arrest. The value of the stolen property is $22,000.

STILL STICKING.

Efforts to Move Steamship St. Paul are Fruitless. (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.) LONG BRANCH (N. J.) Jan. 27.—The International Navigation Company's steamer St. Paul, which ran aground off Long Branch Saturday morning, was still lying broadside on to the shore tonight. She has not moved an inch since the tugs left her yesterday morning, after moving her about fifty yards from where she struck.

The wrecking-company men are working night and day to float her. The steamer is in no immediate danger, and reports have come from the captain and other officers aboard her that she is perfectly intact, and that there is not the slightest sign of a leak anywhere.

The interest manifested by the public in the welfare of the vessel has not abated in the least. Crowds of spectators continue to assemble on the shore, and about 8 o'clock the tugs and kedge anchors were again tried for fully an hour, but the efforts were fruitless, as they were unable to make the steamer budge an inch. There were four lighters constantly at work from daybreak to nightfall, unloading the ship's cargo, and fully three-fourths of it has been sent up to New York.

Tonight a stiff breeze is blowing off shore. As this wind drives the water away from the vessel, no attempt was made at high tide this evening to pull her off. An east or southeast wind is hoped for.

DOESN'T LOOK LIKE A "DROUGHT."

A FIERY BLAST

Mr. Hepburn Goes for the Turks.

Demands that Their Minister Be Ordered Home.

Gen Grosvenor Says the House is Cowardly.

Senate Resolution Calling on the Powers to Enforce Reforms is Adopted—Utah's New Senators Sworn In—Road Bill.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Senator Frank J. Cannon and Arthur Brown, from the new State of Utah, took the oath of office in the Senate today, the former drawing the term of President March 3, 1899, and the latter the term ending March 3, 1897. With the exception of the contested Delaware case this establishes the political division of the upper branch of Congress until March 4, 1897, as follows: Republicans, 44; Democrats, 39; Populists, 6; total, 89; necessary for a majority, 45. Should Mr. Dupont be seated from Delaware the Republican vote would be 45, but at the same time the number necessary for a majority would be 46.

Aside from this event the session was given to further speeches on the Ver Bond Bill, two of the new members of the body, Senator Nelson of Minnesota, and Senator Bacon of Georgia making speeches, the former against the free coinage of silver and Senator Bacon urging the evils of a gold standard.

Senator Hansbrough of North Dakota severely criticized the Secretary of Agriculture for the alleged failure to distribute seeds in accordance with the law, and Senator George of Mississippi defended Secretary Morton's action. The debate will proceed tomorrow. The House today, after an interesting four-hour debate, adopted the resolution passed by the Senate last week calling on the powers signatory to the treaty of Berlin to enforce the reforms in Turkey guaranteed to the Christian Armenians and pledging the support of Congress to the enforcement of the treaty. The House committee on the subject, but the most vigorous action he might take for the protection and security of Americans in Turkey. The House committee had prepared several resolutions on the same subject, but it was deemed advisable, after the Senate resolutions reached the House today, to substitute them for those prepared by the committee.

Mr. Quigg of New York, who had charge of the bill, made an able presentation of the case. He was a disposition on the part of some of the members to go further than the resolutions did and Mr. Hepburn of Iowa proposed to give the Turkish Minister his passports and sever all diplomatic relations with Turkey. His remarks denouncing the Turkish outrages and charging that the signatory to the treaty to Berlin were actuated by political and other considerations in maintaining the "balance of power" in Eastern Europe, received with enthusiasm and at one time it looked as if the House might be carried by his way of thinking. But the counsel of Mr. Hepburn prevailed, and in the course of which he pointed out the consequences that might arise from a severance of diplomatic relations with Turkey, and that had fulfilled her treaty obligations to us, prevailed, and the Hepburn proposition was overwhelmingly defeated.

Mr. Bailey of Texas, who had charge of the resolution on the ground that it would be improper for us to "consult" the parties to the treaty of Berlin by intimating that they had not carried out their obligations.

Mr. Turner of Georgia took a similar view, and Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio characterized the resolution as "incomplete, insufficient and unworthy" and requested the committee to withdraw it. The resolution finally passed, however, by a vote of 163 to 25, after a motion of Mr. Bailey to send them to the committee, had been defeated, 58 to 103.

FIFTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.

REGULAR SESSION. (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—SENATE.—The two Senators from Utah, Frank J. Cannon and Arthur Brown, were on the floor of the Senate today for the first time. They were the center of an animated group in the rear of the chamber, where the Senators gathered to extend to them a warm welcome.

Rev. Dr. Milburn, the blind chaplain, prayed eloquently for the bleeding Armenians: "Hear the cry of our agony," he prayed, "on behalf of the people of Armenia, despoiled, tortured, their homes in ashes, their men and women and children slain at the edge of the sword, their women dishonored. Arouse and unite the powers of Christendom, the Queen, Czar, Kaiser, kings and princes and their ministers and people that they shall be forced to sheathe his bloody sword and stay the frenzied rage of his fanatical soldiers and subjects."

The invocation of the Utah Senators occurred immediately after the chaplain's invocation. Senator Dubois of Idaho presented the credentials of Mr. Cannon and Senator Brown of Michigan. The credentials were read, and the two new Senators proceeded to the desk of the Vice-President, where, with uplifted hand, the oath of office was taken. Senator Brown was assigned a desk in the rear and extreme end of the chamber, and Senator Cannon the one immediately before him.

THEY'RE VERY FULL.

The Northern California Rivers Spread Themselves.

Islanders of the Sacramento are in Danger.

That Investigation of Dr. Brown Will Be Pushed—Robber Killed. Class Spreckels Talked—Banks at Covina—Healy.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—The United States Weather Bureau today issued a special river bulletin as follows:

The stage at Redding is 16 feet and rising. Rainfall in the Siskiyou during the past thirty-six hours was from four to six inches, being heavier than for any equal period during January. This will cause the river to continue to rise for the next twenty-four hours, probably to twenty feet; at Red Bluff the river is 24 feet and rising. It will overflow its banks during the next twenty-four hours; at Colusa the stage is almost 26 feet and it will rise for the next forty hours; at Oroville the stage will reach 37 feet tonight.

The rainfall in the American and Yuba valleys during the past twenty-four hours has been from one to three inches. These streams will rise during the next twenty-four hours. At Sacramento the river will probably rise during the next two or three days to the 27-foot stage.

ISLANDERS IN PERIL. SACRAMENTO, Jan. 27.—News by telephone from Walnut Grove states that the levees around River Island have broken and that the water is pouring over the levees, threatening the homes of the inhabitants. The steamer Apache has left Rio Vista with a rescue party aboard, and if necessary the people and their household effects will be taken to a place of safety.

The lower end of Andrus Island is in force, sucking the weak points in the levee. The people of Brannan Island are trying hard to get out, and say that portions of their levees are weakening. The danger point is at Seven Mile Slough, where the water is nearly to the top of the embankment. If necessary the people and their household effects will be taken to a place of safety.

THE NORTHERN RAILROAD IMPASSABLE. SACRAMENTO, Jan. 27.—The Northern Railroad between this place and Redding is again impassable. Just west of Dunnigan there is a wash of nearly three hundred feet, and there are several other washouts farther north. Near Willows the track is covered with ice. The water is rising in every direction, and all streams are rising again.

SANTA CLARA IRRIGATION. SAN JOSE, Jan. 27.—The heavy rainfall of last night and this morning has the effect of filling the creeks, which are still rising. Washouts around the three bridges over Guadalupe Creek in the section between this place and the lowerlands in the vicinity of this city, Santa Clara and Alviso are covered with water. The rainfall has been reported north of Milpitas, but there is no verification up to this hour. At Los Gatos 1.85 inches fell between 5 o'clock yesterday and 6:30 o'clock today.

SOMETHING ABNORMAL. MARYSVILLE, Jan. 27.—Rain fell to the amount of 1.04 inches last night, making 10.3 inches for the storm, covering a period of two weeks, and 18.54 inches for the season. This abnormal rainfall has kept both the Yuba and Feather rivers at high stage most of the time, but it is not so high as to cause any levees in the immediate vicinity to break. Several levees in the southwestern part of Sutter county and Feather River levees have broken. It was hardly expected that these levees would stand any such sudden trials.

The damage to the crops in such places is only nominal, as the most of the seeding is done late in the winter, or after the first of January, and the crops come late in the year. Further down in Sutter county it is reported that several levees have broken last night, but at this time there is no confirmation of the report.

RAINING FOR THREE DAYS. REDDING, Jan. 27.—It has been raining steadily for three days, with high wind on Sunday. The river is now high as last week, but is rising rapidly. Reports from the mountains show little if any snow. The stages from the east to last night were 10.3 inches, but could not go out. The rainfall is about 30 inches for the season. Farmers and miners are jubilant. Early snow grain is in the ground, and the placer miners are reaping a harvest. The Electric Light and Power Company here has put in a new pump, and the rise of the river will probably not shut off the light and water, as before. There was no local train tonight on account of high water.

STOCKTON, Jan. 27.—A heavy rain, with slight intermission, has fallen here for the last week, making, up to Saturday night, a precipitation amounting to 5.72 inches. Last night a heavy rain fell, and it is raining steadily. There is no danger of a flood, however, all the streams being still in their banks. Mormon Channel is quite high, but the banks are ample to accommodate the water. No levee breaks have been reported, and it is not thought that any considerable damage has resulted from the storm.

At a late hour tonight water is reported as falling in the streams east of Stockton, and no fear of inundation is felt. The channels here can carry several feet more of water without making trouble at any point, and the storm appears at an end. The rain has ceased and the wind is changed on a clear sky.

TEHAMA LOWLANDS OVERRUN. TEHAMA, Jan. 27.—The river is very high and still rising. Creeks are running over the banks. Low land lying near the river is flooded. Chinese gardens are being damaged to a great extent. There is a report that grain crops and fruit as yet. Two inches fell last night. There were no trains on the Willows division today.

YOLO BASINS NEW RECORD. WOODLAND, Jan. 27.—Another big storm here last night has set all the creeks and gulches to booming, and railroad communication for a second time has been interrupted. The middle pier of the Yolo bridge went to this morning and no trains will go further north than Woodland today.

All the creeks are beginning to recede, and the danger of a flood at Knight's Landing may yet be averted. Everything inside the Hayes and Garretts levees near Knight's Landing are flooded, and all the stock has been moved. Water is higher in the Yolo Basin than ever before known. The high lands to the right, and no serious damage has resulted. Late this evening the flood conditions have somewhat improved. All the creeks are falling and, unless the storm continues, the worst is past. The levees have abandoned work on the Yolo bridge until tomorrow. The creek is falling and may be able to care for the back-water from the Lip-pincott break. The train for Oroville ran as usual tonight.

FLOOD AT RED BLUFF. RED BLUFF, Jan. 27.—Since Saturday 2.72 inches of rain has fallen, making 6.89 for the season. Every creek is bank-full. The river here spread out a mile wide, having broken through the old slough east of here. The Weather Bureau gauge at noon marked 24.5 feet, the highest for the season, and is rising an inch an hour. The bureau here is sending out the news to points south that the river will rise for twenty-four hours. No damage has resulted so far, but farmers are apprehensive. It has rained incessantly since this morning.

A SEA OF WATER. COLUSA, Jan. 27.—Rain continues falling. An inch and a half has fallen in twenty-four hours. The total for the season is 11.4 inches. The many breaks on the opposite side of the river prevent the breaking on this side. Colusa Junction is under water. There are dunes of electric light plant in the above Delevan. No trains are running. The loss on Grand Island from water from the foothills and plains will be great. There is a sea of water between Colusa and Marysville buttes.

GRAIN SUBMERGED. YUBA CITY, Jan. 27.—The rivers have begun to rise again and the weather is threatening. The water is rising at once. Since the joint committee began the trial, but the joint committee has refused to allow Dr. Brown to appear before it. The people of the church are wondering if Dr. Brown will occupy his pulpit pending the result of the case. If he does there will be another issue and a very serious one. The congregation will then vote upon the propriety of the pastor's action.

TALK WITH SPRECKELS. Rains Greatly Benefiting Sugar Beets—The Valley Railroad. (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Claus Spreckels have returned to this city after an absence in the country of about a fortnight. They spent most of their vacation at their country home in Aptos, at Watsonville, where Spreckels' best-sugar factories are located, and in the Salinas valley, where he has large ranches and business interests.

Spreckels expresses himself as entirely satisfied with the result of his tour from a commercial standpoint, at least. These late rains have been of incalculable value to that part of the country, he said, and the outlook for the year is very promising. This is particularly true concerning the beet-sugar industry. The Salinas and San Joaquin valleys, considerably increased acreage has been planted, and all of it is in a splendid condition. Sugar beets have been of great value to that part of the State. My investments there and elsewhere in California, in fact, have been of such a character as to inspire me with the most confidence in the profitability of the industry.

He has still more capital to invest in the beet-sugar industry. Wherever I find the farmers sufficiently interested in the subject, if the climate and soil be suitable, and the water supply be abundant, I will be glad to assist them in developing the industry, not alone by the establishment of factories, but by the immediate vicinity, but also in the way of assisting them financially in the cultivation of the raw product. In other words, I am willing to back up my suit with all the capital that may be required.

When asked about the valley railroad project, of which he is the head and president, he said that the project was progressing splendidly. "A good deal of quiet, but telling work, is being pushed up by the railroad company during this rainy season. Grading is still going on wherever possible; track is being laid, rails purchased and cars and other equipment are being secured as fast as possible. The San Joaquin Valley Railroad is going ahead all right."

HEALY GAINS CONFIDENCE. The testimony nearly one-sided in the Captain's Favor. (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—The evidence at the Healy court-martial today was not very strong for the prosecution. Capt. Smith of the revenue cutter Perry, one of the most popular and experienced commanders in the fleet, was the first witness examined. He has known Capt. Healy for years, and is thoroughly familiar with his work. He testified that he believed Healy to be one of the best captains in the revenue service, and the most competent commander of the revenue cutter Perry. He knew Healy to be a social glass occasionally, but never knew him to be drunk. He never knew him to have been drunk on duty.

Lieut. F. G. T. Wadsworth of the Rush also testified strongly in Healy's favor. He served for several years under the captain, but he never saw him intoxicated while on duty. He said the captain never drank to excess, and was always able to command his ship. With his subordinates he was straight and strict, and often in keeping them in place had incurred their enmity. The evidence of Engineer E. P. Webster of the Hartley, who followed, was also in substance the same as that already given. He had known Healy for years, having seen Healy drunk while on duty. Capt. Healy is now confident that he will be vindicated of the charges against him. He expects to prove that his escape at Unalakleet was an accident and not a desertion, as charged at that time. The mishap, he contends, was caused by his having tripped over a rope in the dark. As to the charges of drunkenness, he claims he will disprove them by the testimony of his first lieutenant, who will testify that Healy was always in a condition to command his ship.

ONCE TOO OFTEN. A Robber Holds Up a Saloon and Gets Killed. (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.) STOCKTON, Jan. 27.—Word has just been received here of a killing at Pools' Gulch, the new mining camp, last night. On Friday night last two men held up the proprietor of the saloon at the camp, getting $25. Flushed with success and the excitement which it was accompanied, one of the men attempted to hold up the same saloon again last night, when the proprietor, a man named McDonald, shot and killed him. The body was found by Johnny Lane, who had been a hanger-on at the camp for several weeks.

OTHER DETAILS. PRESCOTT (Ariz.), Jan. 27.—It is thought that the Johnny Lane killed by Saloonkeeper John McDonald last night, is the same man who, about a month ago, robbed Agent W. E. Hall of the United Verde and Pacific Railway at Jerome. Lane was formerly employed as a cowboy and butcher at Jerome. When he entered McDonald's saloon last night there were five or six men present. He compelled all of them to throw up hands and robbed them all. W. A. Clark, superintendent of the Planet Saturn Mining Company, was one of the victims and, watching his opportunity, when the muzzle of the pistol was turned toward him, he grabbed the ball going through Clark's clothing. He then grappled with Clark and, during the struggle, McDonald secured a pistol, shooting the robber through the head, killing him instantly. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of justifiable homicide.

CARLSON WAS LATE. The Supreme Court Decides Against the San Diego Contestant. (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—The Supreme Court today decided a point in an election case of interest to candidates who may begin a contest for an office hereafter. William H. The question hung upon the words "return day of election." The court decided that the return day is the day, not when the result is announced, but when the Supervisors have the official results produced before them. Carlson's contest was filed thirteen days too late.

The Times

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

Ontario will give a royal greeting to the excursionists who go over there Thursday, if it does not rain.

Near Ontario a barn burned with one hundred ladders in it. And yet ladders are considered as fire escapes.

The San Bernardino grand jury has just presented its report. Almost without exception the report is a series of compliments upon the efficient work of the county officials and the excellent condition of the public institutions.

The Salvation Army and its devotees are now responsible for the break-up of a happy little home. It is a pity that zealous workers will become fanatics and extremists, but it is almost invariably the case, especially with religious zealots.

The First Methodist Church of Santa Monica is to have a novel means of illustrating lessons to its Sunday-school pupils. Adjoining the church is a plot on which is to be set out a specimen of every tree mentioned in the Bible, as far as can be had.

One of the first fishes landed by the grand jury has escaped with discouraging ease, considering the time, trouble and expense spent in getting him securely hooked. According to present appearances others may swim out quite as serenely and unscathed.

It was remarkable, early yesterday afternoon, how many passengers on the open cars preferred to stand up. This fondness for an erect position appeared to be shared by all who drove in wagons, and the effect of a view down the street bordered on the ludicrous.

Riverside is going to have a first-class electric-light system. The trustees have wisely resolved not to be hasty in the matter, but to understand clearly everything that they do. Accordingly, they are visiting neighboring towns and making a careful comparative study of systems.

The attention of Chambers of Commerce and other kindred organizations of Southern California may well be directed to a recent instance at Santa Monica. A carpet containing 250 yards was desired for a church which is building at that place. No establishment, either in Los Angeles or San Francisco, could supply an embroiled carpet containing more than 120 yards of the same pattern, and it became necessary to telegraph to Philadelphia for it.

Mayor Carlson of San Diego has been stirring up Congressional Bowers because the latter writes of the improbability of securing appropriations from Congress for fortifications on Point Loma. The Mayor thinks that some of the $33,000,000 appropriation should come to the bay region. His figure is $1,000,000 and he recites the receipt of encouragement in this matter from Senators Perkins and White, and from several Congressmen. Mayor Carlson points out the pertinent fact that it behooves Southern Californians to put themselves strongly in evidence if they hope to get anything in the way of governmental consideration. Billy is dead right.

LAWFULLY RESIDENT.

Kam Toy and Goot Sam Want to Stay.

The cases of Kam Toy and Goot Sam, charged with being unlawfully in America, will come up today. J. D. Riddan of San Francisco, who transacts all the legal business of the Chinese Six Companies, will act with Marble & Phibbs in the defense of Kam Toy.

The attorneys for the defense expect to show conclusively that this woman was brought into America by the special act of Congress permitting Chinese to be brought into the country for one year, to figure at the Chinese village of the Atlanta Cotton Exposition. They say that Kam Toy is an embroiled for this Chinese troupe, a part of which is appearing at the Chinese theatre in this city at present.

The lawyers claim that Goot Sam is the wife of a Bakersfield Chinaman named Toy Lung. He abused her so badly, say her attorneys, that she ran away from him, leaving her certificate in his hands. Toy Lung's soul thirsts for revenge, so he has determined on Goot Sam's deportation. Her certificate is in his possession, and to make it harder for her to prove her identity by a duplicate certificate, he went to the photographer who had taken Goot Sam's photograph at the time of her registration, and obtained possession of not only the picture, but the negative.

Messrs. Marble & Phibbs had a subpoena issued for Goot Sam's husband, but to and behold he had disappeared from his quondam haunts.

This is the tale her lawyers tell. The other side smiles benignly and says, "Rather gauzy."

INGLESIDE RACE TRACK

CAPT. TOM MERRY RIDES HIS FAVORITE HOBBY.

He Waxes Enthusiastic Over the Re-nascence of "Horse" Racing on the Pacific Coast—The New Track is a Great Success.

Capt. Tom Merry, who left here last July for Ventura, is at the Ramona. He is now in the employ of the new Pacific Coast Jockey Club, which owns and operates the Ingleside racecourse at San Francisco, and he tells in graphic language all about the success of the new racing enterprise. Motoring his interviewer to a chair, he said: "Tell me all about your new track? Why, yes, there's nothing easier. You must know that about a year ago several prominent turfmen, among whom were A. B. Spreckels of San Francisco and Edward Corrigan of Chicago, became dissatisfied at the way things were going on at the Bay District track. I do not propose to get into details over that part of it, for it would make too long a story. It is enough to say that they concluded that their only way out of the dilemma was to buy some land and build a track of their own. This was done, and A. M. Allen of Chicago, who built the Hawthorne and Harlem tracks near the city, was sent out to take charge of the work. He began in July, and had to do some very heavy work. The first quarter-mile lay across a field, which necessitated an embankment containing 300,000 cubic yards of earth. Since then an inside track has been built, which contains about 312,000 yards. The expense for labor and teams employed for these two 'fills' has never been less than $100 per day."

"In what way does the track itself differ from other tracks?" asked the reporter.

"In the respect that is the safest track west of the Rockies, and the fastest mud track ever known anywhere. During that weather we had heavy rains, yet during that weather we had three races of six furlongs run below 1:17 and a mile in 1:46. There is no other track in America that could show such time in muddy going."

"How does the earthwork differ from other tracks?" asked the scribe.

"Well, you see, the basin is said, very light and porous in its nature. Over that Mr. Allen put a coating of clay about two feet deep, and on top of that again a top dressing of rich black loam, say fifteen inches. When it rains the sand drains down the moisture like a big sponge. Hence the fact that in bad weather is no cause for special wonder."

"The accommodations for visitors are superior to anything yet known on the Coast, are they not?" asked the reporter.

"By long odds," replied the captain. "You have to go a long distance before you see anything to equal them. There are private dining-rooms and parlors for the reception of ladies with elegant dressing-rooms attached. The finest grandstand in the world is at Flemington, near Melbourne, and the next nearest is at Morris Park and Long Branch. Our grandstand holds about 6500 people on a pinch. But our saddle padlock and betting ring are far and away ahead of anything at Melbourne or anywhere else south of the equator."

"Stories of our people who have been up there say your grandstand is located on the wrong side of the track, and ought to be placed on what is now the backstretch," said the reporter.

"Granting that our racing season were the same as yours, their reasoning would be correct," said Capt. Merry, "but you race here in the hot weather, when the sun is oppressive. Our track, on the contrary, is built expressly for racing in midwinter, when every ray of sunlight is welcome, especially to eastern visitors. Hence our grandstand faces the setting sun."

"Speaking of eastern visitors, do you have many of them this winter?"

"A very large number, indeed, although as I lived in Los Angeles last winter, I cannot say how this season compares with the previous one."

"Don't these eastern visitors take a good deal of money out of the State when they go back home in the spring?" asked the reporter.

"Some do and some do not. I know of several big operators that have had to telegraph back for remittances to enable them to reach home, both last spring and the year before. Then there are the shrewd operators who book bets at safe distances and round up their transactions carefully by laying against all starters. You know that whether five horses start in a race or twenty, only one horse can win."

"Whom do you consider the biggest bookmaker there?"

"George Rose, beyond a doubt, with Barney Schreiber next in say. Their transactions are the heaviest of all."

WOULD-BE MEN

And "Has-Beens" Are the Melancholy Fates of Too Many of Our Younger Generation

IF YOU HAVE ERRED IN YOUR YOUTH, IF your eyes look lusty, if you have used your system up, if you have disordered your liver or misused your kidneys, you should take the Great Hudson. You can get it for certain diseases, but you must first make application to the Hudson Medical Institute.

TAINTED BLOOD—Impure blood, due to several private disorders, carries myriads of sore-producing germs. Then come sore throat, pimples, copper-colored spots, ulcers in mouth, old sores and falling hair. You can save a trip to Hot Springs by writing for "Blood Root" to the old physicians of the Hudson Medical Institute, Stockton, Market and Ellis Streets.

LIVER—When your liver is affected you may feel blue, melancholy, irritable and easily discontented. You will notice many symptoms that you really have and in so doing you really do harm. You need a good liver regulator, and this you should take at once. You can get it from us. Write for book on liver troubles, "All About the Liver." Best free.

KIDNEY remedies are now sought for by many men, because so many men live rapid lives—use up their kidneys. If you wish to have your kidneys put in good order send for our Kidney Regulator, or, better, learn something about kidney ailments and how to make the best. The book, "A Knowledge of Kidneys," sent free.

IN SOCIAL SPHERES.

A very pleasant children's party was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. T. E. Beatty in honor of the tenth birthday of her oldest daughter, Miss Bessie Beatty. The dining-room was prettily decorated with vines and flowers, and in the center of the table the birthday cake, which was illuminated with eleven pink candles, was surrounded by pink roses and smilax, trailing out to each corner. The name-cards were tied with pink ribbons and at each place was a dainty chrysanthemum of pink and white tissue-paper, filled with candies of the same shade. After the luncheon the remainder of the afternoon was devoted to games. Miss Beatty received a number of pretty gifts. Among the little guests were Evelyn Hanbury, Gertrude King, Vera Cobbe, Ethel and Bertha Rhoades, Winnie Kane and Dorothy Beatty.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

The Orpheum Offered.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—(To the Editor of The Times.) It is stated in the Sunday Times that Mr. Louis James desires to give a matinee for the benefit of the Newsboys' Home of this city. I hereby beg to offer free of charge the use of the Orpheum with orchestra, lights and ushers. Mr. James is quite welcome to the use of the Orpheum on any afternoon of this week, except Saturday or Sunday.

Respectfully yours,
JOSEPH PETRICH.

Hear! Hear!

PASADENA, Jan. 27, 1896.—(To the Editor of The Times.) Will you kindly allow me one more word in answer to Mr. Bullard. He says: "Common-sense is the best means of solving the question." I think so, too, and so will ask Mr. Bullard if he would accept 1890 dollars as payment in full for a debt of 1900 dollars? This is what his contention amounts to when he says that 1900 commences the twentieth century. Why is this called the nineteenth century if the year 1900 is in the twentieth century, as Mr. Bullard claims it is? If you insert this I will promise not to trouble you again, and kindly let us have your opinion as to when the century does end. EDWARD PHILLIPS. (It's a bargain!—Ed. Times.)

HIS MASTER PASSION.

HARRY EMMONS' FONDNESS FOR "RAZORS."

He Looted Five Barber Shops, but Got Caught at Last—He is an Ex-Convict and Will Go Back to the Penitentiary.

A negro and a razor generally go together, and it is not an uncommon event to catch a colored man with several razors on his person, to be used as weapons of offense or defense as the occasion may require. Seldom, though, is the master passion for carrying "razors" so strongly developed as in the case of Harry Emmons, an ebony-colored individual who was arrested by Detectives Auble and Hawley yesterday.

Emmons had enough razors about him to stock a cutlery store, and, indeed, it seems that his business was to keep certain second-hand stores supplied with implements used in the tonorial art. Emmons, in short, is the barber-shop burglar who has played such havoc in the tonorial establishments situated on the highways, and byways of Los Angeles, not remote from the city's business center.

At least five barber-shop burglaries committed in the last few weeks have been traced to Emmons. The shops he is accused of robbing are those of Charles Roston, No. 231 West Fourth street; Vandover Bros., No. 125 East Fifth street; J. Bask, No. 420 East First street; Fred Jameson, No. 615 1/2 East First street (twice); Antonio Pando, No. 614 1/2 Aliso street. Emmons was detected at last. The detectives found him out as early as Thursday, but they gave him rope till yesterday, so as to get a sure clinch on him. They say they have got him where they want him now, and he is sure to go back to the penitentiary, which he left only last September, having been sent up for burglary from Santa Barbara several years ago. He is a smooth operator, and the detectives made a good catch when they hauled him in.

Most of the stolen razors and other utensils have been recovered.

On account of the storm yesterday we will continue
